Foiled

By Yolen, Jane

First Second, 2010. Book Condition: New. Brand New, Unread Copy in Perfect Condition. A+ Customer Service! Summary: Review in 3/15 Booklist Alieria may have listened too well to her fencing coach's advice: "You must always protect your heart." Besting competitors twice her age in tournaments and keeping to a strict routine of fencing practice, homework, and role-playing games, Alieria is a loner and likes it that way until she becomes lab partners with the cutest boy in school. She initially resists his charms but is won over when he asks for a date. Turns out her new ruby-handled foil is the key to his interest in her, and to the yet-unseen magical dimension she must keep in balance. Yolen's first foray into the graphic format is a success precisely because she incorporates the best weapon in her arsenal fantasy. In Alieria she has created a strong, conflicted, and relatable girl hero who wields her wariness for protection. Cavallaro's artwork suits Alieria's monochrome existence, but bursts to life when she finally sees (in color!) the faerie beasties cheering her on. The explanation and source of Alieria's status as a protector of worlds will have to wait for further volumes to be...
