Peter E. Randall, United States, 2016. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 279 x 216 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. This is a story of one courageous Mallard who lost his family but did not give up, and about a little girl who watched and loved the duckling as he struggled to make it to adulthood. It takes place on the Merrimack River in Massachusetts and is based on a true account of one duckling s survival. Themes of home, family, friendship, and nature are presented, as it explores the dilemma of safety versus growth. A wonderful read aloud for K-3rd grade, this uplifting story is recommended for nature and science centers, children s museums, and school and public libraries to support science and social studies sections. Author lives in Massachusetts and Missouri.
