By Ken Gnanakan

SPCK Publishing. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, God's World: Biblical Theology of the Environment, Ken Gnanakan, Today the environmental crisis is no longer a matter of concern for a few, but for everybody. It concerns global survival. God's World is a study guide looking at themes from the Old and New Testaments involving creation, land and the environment, relating them to a contemporary context. Topics covered include the meaning of man's 'dominion' over the earth, the laws guiding the Israelites care of the land, the new creation through Jesus, eco-feminism and evangelical Christians and the environment. The book combines a discussion of the theology and ethics of the environment as well as looking at a practical, positive response. There is a useful glossary of terms, plus suggestions for discuss and further study.
