

Daughters of the American Revolution Magazine (Volume 10)

By Daughters Of The Revolution

General Books. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 430 pages. Dimensions: 9.7in. x 7.4in. x 0.9in. This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text. Purchasers can download a free scanned copy of the original book (without typos) from the publisher. Not indexed. Not illustrated. 1897 Excerpt: . . . formation of Chapter in Honolulu, also letter from Hon. Joseph E. Washington, regarding the Tennessee Centennial. President General. In connection with this matter the Chair simply expresses one wish and one hope, and that is, that every State Regent, and every Chapter Regent, and every Vice-President General and the Chair will pledge their support to the National Board of Management to assist in every way within their power in making this a grand celebration. Reader reads letter from General Joseph C. Breckinridge, as follows: Mrs. A. E. Stevenson, President General, National Society, Daughters of the American Revolution, Washington, D. C. Madam: It may not be immediately practicable to bring the revolutionary soldiery under the care provided by the National Cemetery laws which only include those who died in the last war and in that with Mexico, but it seems that some decorous action by Congress...

READ ONLINE
[2.1 MB]

Reviews

A top quality publication along with the font used was intriguing to read. I really could comprehend everything using this written e ebook. Its been designed in an remarkably straightforward way and it is only after i finished reading through this publication by which basically altered me, modify the way i believe.

-- Cathrine Larkin Sr.

Very useful to all of group of people. I actually have read through and so i am certain that i will planning to study yet again once again down the road. I am just very easily can get a satisfaction of looking at a created book.

-- Mark Bernier